Bodega El Porvenir was founded in 1890 by a family of Italian immigrants who settled in the Cafayate Valley. In 1999 it was reborn as a premium winery upon being bought by the Romero-Marcuzzi family, who knew the region and were inspired to develop a successful vitivinicultural project.

Bodega El Porvenir is a family winery located in Cafayate at 5,740 feet above sea level. The winery consists of 192 acres of carefully planted family-owned vineyards that are divided into two estates, Río Seco and El Retiro.

Paul Hobbs is the Winemaker Consultant.

“Laborum Torrontes 2010 is a vibrant greenish-yellow in the eye with tropical fruit, citric notes with subtle floral aromas, mainly of roses and fresh, fruity and agile due to its good acidity and long-lasting aftertaste. Round and mouth-filling; tons of fruit. Dry, succulent, complex, exceptional length” Robert Parker

The production is limited to 26,000 bottles per year
